

Southwest Community Chorus & Vintage Singers

The Temecula Vintage Singers is a classical Master chorale, now in its seventh year, which performs a cappella and accompanied music from medieval to modern. In addition to its regular Christmas and Spring concerts, the chorale has also performed at Renaissance Faires, at events sponsored by The Arts Council of Temecula Valley, at area churches, and at a wide variety of community events. Membership in the chorale is by audition only. Its members come from all over the Inland Empire and are accomplished performers who share a joy in choral singing and a desire to communicate that joy to others.

Chorus members are: Holly Goulet-Perez, Penny Hoy, Sylvia Muse, Jari Vandenbergh, Laura Hanson, Laura Fauntleroy, Polly Johnson, Shelley Peters, Debby Cutts, Alan Bock, Steve Phelps, David Harmon, Victor Peiffer, and Steve Volkoff.

The Southwest Community Chorus is a women's chorus, now in its second year, sponsored by Mt. San Jacinto College Community Education. Its goal is to provide a quality opportunity for choral singers to learn or improve their craft. It is open to all women who love to sing and can carry a tune. The chorus sings a wide variety of music, including classical, folk, musical theater, and old standards. The next auditions will be in August.

Chorus members are: Jan Milos, Maria Norman, Paula Sampat, Nancy Serbin, Joan Thacker, Lila Nickerson, Jennifer Watson, Mary Lou Boyle, Lea Elardo, Dani Maloy, Jeanne Mize, Carol Padeski, Sue Rosauer, JoAnn Summers, Roberta Rothstein, Ruth Hobbs, Shannon McCleerey-Hooper, Lisa Duncan, Lynn Hornbeck, Mary Keith, Traci Keller, Pat Maskell, Donna Matson, Jill Purczynski, Karen Harr, Lisa Zion, Evelyn Gould, Gloria Boehm, Tanya Koll, Carolyn Shepardson, Leigh Cramer-Espinosa, Angela Ottinger, Nancy Roda, and Heidi Zuma.
